December 2012

Dec. 11, 2012

After some minor technical problems, we managed to hold our first Skype meeting on December 11. During the video conference, the volunteers and coordinators on the Polish and German side met “by video” for the first time and introduced themselves. They talked about their hobbies and interests. The German volunteers (and certainly the Polish volunteers likewise) were very happy with the conference, especially since the technical part also worked well. The German participants are already looking forward to their visit to Cracow and to welcoming the Polish guests in Frankfurt.

The following persons took part in the meeting on our side:

Trude Dorscht (member of Memory XL Project, landscape designer)

Bernhard Eddigehausen (assistant to P. Gehweiler and IT specialist)

Peter Gehweiler (project coordinator) cycling and travelling

Melanie Hartlaub (Library of the Elders, IT designer)

Ursula Marklove (“half British”, volunteer Kreativ-Werkstatt)

Claudia Munoz del Rio (co-coordinator and head of Kreativ-Werkstatt)

Monika Picka (Czech and volunteer Kreativ-Werkstatt)

Wera Rohowski (cycling and travelling, U3L student)

Edeltraud Thobe (Greenpeace, travelling around the world)

Malgorzata Vsowicz (supporter and translator, volunteer Kreativ-Werkstatt)
